

-
- Autumn 2006: School of MANAGEMENT (p. 31): “Professor Peng honored,” reporting my Scholarly Contribution Award from the International Association for Chinese Management Research

PROFESSOR PENG HONORED

SOM faculty member Mike W. Peng, Ph.D., Provost's Distinguished Professor of Global Strategy, has been selected as the 2006 recipient of the Scholarly Contribution Award of the International Association for Chinese Management Research (IACMR). Professor Peng accepted the award in June at IACMR's biennial meeting in Nanjing. Founded in 2001 in Washington, D.C, IACMR is a professional and academic organization that serves scholars, students, managers and consultants interested in advancing knowledge about the management of organizations operating in the Chinese context. More than 550 professionals and academicians representing some 200 universities or other affiliates from 20 countries attended the June session. Professor Peng was one of six award recipients announced at the meeting.