ADMISSION—FRESHMEN

Admission Review
utdallas.edu/enroll/freshman

Applicants are reviewed individually and holistically to ensure consideration is given to factors included in an applicant’s composite achievement profile including;

- Overall grades in academic coursework and trends in achievement.
- Strength of high school curriculum, including level of rigor (AP, IB, dual credit).
- High school rank and GPA.
- SAT or ACT test scores.
- Ability to be successful in intended major.
- Information provided in the résumé, essay and/or letters of recommendation.

FRESHMAN SCHOLARSHIPS

All first-time college freshmen admitted to UT Dallas by March 1 are automatically reviewed for an Academic Excellence Scholarship (AES) award. Other scholarship programs for freshmen include the Eugene McDermott Scholars Program, the National Merit Scholars Program, the Terry Foundation Scholarship and the Diversity Scholarship Program.

ESTIMATED COST OF ATTENDANCE

The cost of college varies from student to student even at the same university, and the posted tuition rate isn’t necessarily the ultimate cost to the student and their family. Factors such as academic programs, academic progress and student lifestyles affect the bottom line. For the most current tuition estimates, refer to the financial aid website at utdallas.edu/finaid.

TEXAS TOP 10 PERCENT

Applicants graduating in the top 10 percent of their class from an accredited Texas high school who successfully earn the Distinguished Level of Achievement can qualify for automatic admission.

IMPORTANT DATES:

- Fall Application Opens: July 1
- FAFSA Available: October 1
- Priority Application Deadline: January 15
- Priority Financial Aid Deadline: March 15
- Regular Application Deadline: May 1

Students admitted to the University will be enrolled in the degree program requested in their application, subject to academic requirements for specific degree programs and enrollment capacities. Students who cannot be enrolled in their first choice of major will be offered enrollment as outlined in their acceptance letter.

Whether you’re looking for friends or a way to get involved, there’s something at UT Dallas for you. You’ll find things like athletics and recreational sports, and if you’re into working out, you’ll enjoy the Activity Center with its gym, racquetball, squash and basketball courts and a 25-yard indoor swimming pool.

From the annual Oozeball Tournament — played in knee-deep mud — to the rock climbing wall, to the homecoming parade, there’s a lot to see and do. You’ll have access to more than 300 student organizations, from Greek life to athletics to professional and social interests. At UT Dallas, you’re sure to find a group that’s the right fit, but if not, you can create your own.

Off campus, the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex is one of the nation’s largest urban areas, with shopping, entertainment venues — including five major sports teams — museums and art galleries. With a Dallas Area Rapid Transit (DART) pass — available to all eligible UT Dallas students — you can ride all DART buses and trains to the exciting venues the area has to offer.

COME VISIT!
